The Slants Foundation • Vice Chair of the Board | Video and Audio Production

2019 - present • National

The Slants Foundation is a volunteer-driven organization that provides resources, scholarships and mentorship to Asian Americans looking to incorporate activism into their art. As a founding member and current Vice Chair, I help with organizational tasks in running the non-profit, planning events, as well as writing grants and providing mentorship to other artists. I am also technical director, producer and editor for programs including: The Asian PaCIVICs video podcast series, AAMV and the RockAgainstHate concerts.

The Slants • Musician | Songwriter | Record Producer | Video Director | Video Editor | Engineer | Booking

June 2015 - present • Portland, OR

The Slants is an internationally touring band and activist group, known for a unanimous victory at the Supreme Court in 2017. I produced, engineered and composed four of the band's most recent albums as well as composed an opera based on the band's story called Slanted: An American Rock Opera, which premiered in 2023. In live performance, I served as a touring guitarist and singer. In addition to being a musician, I've also directed, shot and edited the music videos: Family (2023), Level Up (2018), Sakura, Sakura (2017) and the tour documentary: The Slants Taiwan Tour 2016.
